The vineyards are in one of the most southern regions in the world. The climate has a big temperature amplitude, whereby the nights are very cold and days intensely sunny. Bottle 250ml 175ml

2008 Morgenster Estate Red, Morgenster

£89.95 - £23.50

New and Old Worlds meet at Morgenster. The estate was bought by Italian Giulio Bertrand in 1992 with a vision: to make the best Bordeauxstyle wine outside France. In Château Cheval Blanc's Pierre Lurton he found the expertise and experience he also needed. Lurton's involvement spans almost 20 year – a consultant and board member since 1998. Enticing you with almonds, coffee and sweet caramel, and alluring sniffs of cassis and vanilla pods. Great freshness with hits of blackberry sweetness. Elegant, plush and immediately filling. 27% Cabernet Franc 28% Cabernet Sauvignon 45% Merlot.

2007 Chateau Rauzan-Ségla, Margaux, Bordeaux, France

£124.95 - £30.00

Considered the finest Second Growth alongside Mouton-Rothschild in the 19th century, it is only in recent years that this Chanel-owned property has really started living up to its potential. With crushed velvet black fruit, it is particularly sexy even for a Margaux, although its elegant tannins and precise, focused structure temper its lasciviousness. If you haven't already discovered the delights of Rauzan-Sgla this is an excellent vintage to start. The palate is medium-bodied with slightly grainy tannin on the entry; there is truffle-infused black fruit, sea salt and a healthy pinch of spice, leading to a refined, almost Pomerol-like finish.

Remember - we select these wines ourselves, so if you're not sure what to order, or fancy trying something new, please just ask.

We're as passionate about good wine as we are about excellent food and would be delighted to help you.
